

Global Health Certificate: In 6 Steps

1. Be an Active DOCARE member
2. Complete an online Global Health MOOC* and submit the completion certificate
3. Attend two (2) local, national, or international meetings or events^ on Global Health and submit the agenda
4. Complete two (2) weeks or more of a Global Health Outreach elective rotation at a DOCARE partner clinic or on a DOCARE outreach trip
5. Present on your Global Health experience upon return[†]
6. Receive DOCARE Global Health Certificate!

All of the above must be completed within three years

Appendix:

*Coursera examples: (<https://www.coursera.org>)

- A. Essentials of Global Health - Yale University
- B. Global Health: An Interdisciplinary Overview - University of Geneva
- C. The Challenges of Global Health - Duke university
- D. An Introduction to Global Health - University of Copenhagen
- E. Foundations for Global Health Responders - University of Colorado
- F. Global Health Security, Solidarity, and Sustainability through the International Health Regulations - University of Geneva

^Meeting/event examples:

- A. AOA BIOM International Seminar
- B. Consortium of Universities for Global Health (CUGH) - Annual Global Health Conference
- C. Unite for Sight - Global Health and Innovation Conference
- D. INMED Humanitarian Health Conference
- E. Any local campus or community meeting or event on global health, multiculturalism, or medical outreach

†Presentation options:

- A. Campus DOCARE chapter or Global Health Club and submit an attestation letter signed by the club advisor
- B. A Global Health conference poster or oral presentation (see conference examples above)
- C. Other options with prior approval and appropriate evidence of completion